In 2014 the distinguished firm of Hartman Baldwin was commissioned to completely remodel and update this classic 1965 estate with a modern flare. Walls of glass in this meticulous home provide an expansive feel and allow an abundance of natural light and visual transparency to the lush greenery outside. The unified and well-proportioned public spaces begin with the living and dining room and flow to the family room and chef's kitchen. Two patios connect the core, creating a seamless indoor/outdoor flow - from the pool area with tranquil mountain views to the backyard garden with serene treetop views and beyond. The remodeled master wing features his & hers closets and an ensuite luxurious bath. The east wing includes three additional
